Dear Congressman Whitfield:

This is in response to your letter of August 21, 2006 concerning your constituent, Rodney M. Heaton, who has applied for a Presidential pardon. Mr. Heaton's pardon petition was received in the Office of the Pardon Attorney on March 5, 2004, and remains under consideration. The time for processing a Presidential clemency request can be lengthy, and I can give no assurances that a decision will be made by the White House within any particular time frame. We will, however, notify Mr. Heaton's counsel promptly once a final decision is reached in his case.

Sincerely,

Roger C. Adams

Dear Congressman Whitfield:

Thank you for your letter concerning the status of the application for a pardon of your constituent, Rodney M. Heaton. Unfortunately, there is little I can add to my letter of October 6, 2006 concerning Mr. Heaton. His clemency request remains under consideration, and I can give no assurances that a final decision will be made by the White House within any particular time frame. When a decision is made, however, we will promptly notify Mr. Heaton's counsel.

I appreciate your continuing interest in this matter.

Sincerely,

Roger C. Adams
